On Tuesday April 12th Margaret Fairbanks Marcus, Supervisor of Research at the Cleveland Museum of Art, will speak to the Cleveland Flower Arrangers Club when they meet at the Museum from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m. The author of PERIOD FLOWER ARRANGEMENT, FLOWER PAINTING BY THE GREAT MASTERS and FLOWER PAINTING, Mrs. Marcus will discuss the resources and inspiration offered to flower arrangers by the Museum's collections. To illustrate her talk she will show the group books such as publications on Flemish and Dutch flower painting and one on modern flower arrangement in Japan by the Japanese artist Teshighara. During the course of the afternoon the club will visit the current colorful exhibition HORTICULTURAL MOTIFS IN ART as well as view kodachrome slides of flower arrangement styles of various countries and periods.

The club, which will lunch at the Wade Park Manor before this Tuesday meeting, is headed by Mrs. Hugh McKibbin as president with Mrs. Henry Zetzer as Garden Center representative.
